

STANLEY-BOYD SCHOOL DISTRICT PARENT ENGAGEMENT POLICY

The School District of Stanley-Boyd will engage parents in regular, two-way and meaningful communication addressing student achievement and ensuring:

- that parents play an integral role in assisting in their child’s learning
- that parents are encouraged to be actively engaged in their child’s education
- that parents are full partners in their child’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees

In compliance with Section 1118(a) (2), of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), the School District of Stanley-Boyd agrees to implement required statutory requirements to:

- Engage parents in the joint planning and development of the district’s Title I plan through representation on the district ESEA team
- Engage parents in an Annual Local Review of the Title I Program and use the results of the Annual Review to address any identified barriers to parental participation
- Engage parents in the development, implementation, and review of Parent-School Compacts
- Engage parents in the planning and development of effective parent engagement activities through representation on each building’s Title I Needs Assessment/Evaluation Committee or Schoolwide Committee
- Build the schools’ and parents’ capacity for parent engagement by
  - providing parents with information on state standards, assessments, requirements of Title I, monitoring their child’s progress, and working with educators
  - providing materials, resources and training to help parents work with their children to improve academic achievement
  - implementing a two-way communication system with parents that provides information in clear and understandable terms
  - coordinating parent engagement activities with other initiatives including Head Start, after school programs, etc.

This Stanley-Boyd School District Parental Engagement Policy was adopted by the School District of Stanley-Boyd on 9/27/10. The district will distribute this policy to all parents of participating Title I children.
