Administrative Rule: Acceptable Technology Use - Staff

Written By: Jim Jones, District Administrator

Date: February 28, 2007

The computer network is provided for staff and students to conduct research and communicate with others. Communications over the network are often public in nature therefore general rules and standards for appropriate behavior and communications apply.

After approval by the Board of Education, the Technology Administrator may review staff personal files and communications to maintain system integrity and to ensure that the system is being used responsibly. Users should not expect that files stored on district servers are private.

The following behaviors are not permitted on district networks:

1. Sending or displaying inappropriate material
2. Assisting a campaign for election of any person to any office or for the promotion of or opposition to any ballot proposition
3. Using obscene language
4. Harassing, insulting or attacking others
5. Sending emails or other communications derogatory towards school staff or programming or other uses deemed "not in the schools best interest".
6. Violating copyright laws
7. Using others' passwords
8. Trespassing in others' folders, documents, or files
9. Employing the network for commercial purposes
10. Violating regulations prescribed by the network provider
11. Using Email services other than Gaggle.net (students)
12. Downloading software or modifying computer settings (students)
13. Permitting students to use computers and/or computer labs without supervision (staff)

The Technology Administrator will follow the guidelines listed below when a violation to this Acceptable Use Policy is suspected.
